REPORT

Meraki, the seated assembly themed "Christmas-Gloria," was conducted by the IV Semester B. Com-A students at the NBS Seminar Hall on 19/12/2025 from 1:30 p.m. onwards. The program was organised under Meraki with the objective of promoting creativity, student engagement, and awareness of value-based themes associated with Christmas. The I Semester B. Com A students were the audience for the program. The program was effectively anchored by Mr. Amal Doji and Ms. Gopika K R, ensuring a smooth flow of events. The assembly began with the Hymn of Grace rendered by Mr. Amal Noble, setting a calm and reflective tone. This was followed by the Welcome Speech delivered by Ms. Maria Tresa Joby, who warmly welcomed the gathering and briefly introduced the significance of the theme Gloria.

The segment "Celebrating Icon" was presented by Ms. Sandra A S, focusing on the life and entrepreneurial journey of Jack Ma, founder of Alibaba Group. The presentation highlighted his humble beginnings, innovative mindset, leadership qualities, and contributions to global e-commerce, inspiring students to pursue perseverance and innovation in business. The News Pulse, presented by Ms. Aparna, Ms. Shreya, and Mr. Adarsh, covered important Campus, National and International developments relevant to commerce and society. This was followed by a session on an established company, presented by Ms. Vismaya B, who explained the growth, brand identity, and global presence of Hallmark, emphasizing its relevance to festive celebrations and its focus on creativity and emotional connection with customers.

The interactive segment "Quiz Tacular", conducted by Mr. Noel, Mr. Akshay, and Mr. Joseph, generated enthusiasm among the audience and ensured active participation. The winners of the quiz were appreciated and presented with gifts, adding encouragement and excitement to the session. The International Day Talk was delivered by Mr. Joseph Peter, linking global observances with the theme Christmas – Gloria, and highlighting values such as unity, hope, and gratitude. The audience feedback was presented by Ms. Annmariya Niju, who shared reflections on the program's organisation and content. The Vote of Thanks was proposed by Mr. Edwin P Joy, expressing gratitude to the faculty, participants, and organisers. The program was evaluated by Ms. Soniya Thomas, NAAC Coordinator, who appreciated the students' efforts, coordination, and thematic relevance, and provided constructive feedback. The Meraki seated assembly concluded on a meaningful note with a Patriotic Song performed by the team, marking the successful completion of the program.
