WORLD MUSIC DAY JUNE 21, 2022

REPORT

World Music Day is celebrated on June 21 every year to honor the musicians and singers for the gift of music, which gives flight to the imagination and life to everything. Music servers as mediation for great musicians. The right kind of music can help people to do wonders. Since India is a land of diversity with varied cultures, every region has its own unique musical form. In the frame of World Music Day, the Music Club of NIMIT has been made an English song in the caparisoned digital recording studio in the college, where the partaking of the music club members made this day to have been brought about the spirit of music, the vibrancy of vocals and the melody of instruments. During the morning assembly, one of the students from the Department of Commerce to let the other students to know on the prominence of this day along with its history by his eloquence. Commemorated this day, everyone was reminded to remember the quintessence of this day, and where it took us off to a world without music would have no meaning to many and it is observed to celebrate the power of this art. Having been made a melody as this in the form of ensemble singing, we are inculcated to exalt the theme of this year "Music at Intersections"

The theme encourages the common public regarding the importance of music in our lives and also tries to convince them to listen to more music and songs especially on this day. And it also suggests the people to attend live concerts and other music events for better experience with the music in life. Having been celebrated a day among the students, which vehemently prompts them to learn unlike genres of music which are being imbibed from diverse cultures in the world. To honor of the musicians as on this day musicians across the world are encouraged to show their talent by using the platform as they are allowed to organize music events even at public places on this day like streets, parks, roads, etc. Thus it helps the art of music to reach everybody and also helps the artists to move forward with their careers. These programs were done under the superintendence of two faculties of the Department of English, Mr. Philip P J & Mr. Cyril. B. Technical assistance from the Department of IT, Mr. Sanith at the recording studio for having been recorded the song followed by made the video of song including posted it on YouTube of the college. Last but not least, this day has been conducive to have been made as fruitful in accordance with the steadfast suggestions of our reverent vice-principle of the campus management Mr. Robert Fernandez.
