REPORT

The PG Department of English at Naipunnya Institute organized an enriching event, 'Book to Box-office' quiz competition, aiming to instil a love for reading among students. The event was concomitant around a selected book and its movie adaptation for each month, with September featuring Benyamin's timeless masterpiece, "The Goat Life". The students were given ample time to immerse themselves in the book before the quiz had taken place. The quiz was conducted in the MBA Block seminar hall from 2.15 p.m. to 3.15 p.m. on 26th September, 2025. Ten enthusiastic students from various departments participated showcasing their literary knowledge and comprehension. Ms. Mary J Rose, the event coordinator, took the role of quiz master, orchestrating the competition with expertise. Students were engaged with visual slides for the quiz. The programme enhanced the overall experience of the participants and the audience alike.

The quiz was comprised of multiple rounds designed to challenge the participants and gradually narrowed down the field. After an engaging session, filled with literary questions and discussions, Aswin Anoop from 2nd BSc CS secured the title as the deserving winner of the competition. Joseph Joby from 2nd B.com FA secured the second position. To recognize the efforts and achievements of the winners, they were awarded cash prizes and certificates, acknowledging their dedication to literature and excellence in the quiz competition. The event was not only a celebration of joy of reading and immersing in the cinematic experience but also fostered a sense of camaraderie and intellectual engagement among the students, reflecting the values of Naipunnya Institute in promoting holistic education and intellectual growth.
