Academic year- 2021-2022

Prepared by: Ms Bindu Muraleedhran

Naipunnya Institute of Management & Information Technology, Pongam.
R -Collective –VER-3.0

Objective: To increase the paper Publication in UGC approved Journal
To write Research Proposals for Research funding

Expected Outcome of R Collective

The Planned Number of publication for each department proposed by the research committee should be published.

To inculcate the research culture in the campus, irrespective of all limitations of being a self-financing institution, the IQAC organised separate webinar for all the departments of NIMIT under R Collective –VER-3. Topics covered in the sessions were “Writing an effective and impactful Research Paper” and related topics covered include -Essentials of an effective research paper, plagiarism, selection of a journal, submission of research paper, importance of research question, originality of work, UGC care list etc.

Dr.Vani Kammath from D Y Patel addressed the Commerce and HM faculty team on how to enhance the quality of writing research paper and procedures of getting published in the UGC journals.

Dr.S Sringeravelan addressed the HM team on helping them to identify specific topics of research [paper writing pertaining to the department of Hotel Management. Topics covered were research process, Journal indexing like ORCID,SCI , scientometrics for measuring journal quality-Scopus, research document search, SCI journals and how to identify predatory journals. Google scholar, research gate, orchid -its membership and advantages.

As the outcome of R Collective Ver-3, the faculty team of NIMIT was divided into different groups under a respective guide for each department. The guidelines and deadlines of the work completion was planned as follows.
