REPORT

The PG Department of English at Naipunnya Institute organized an enriching academic event titled "Book to Box-Office" Quiz Competition with the objective of cultivating a love for reading while encouraging students to explore the dynamic relationship between literature and cinema. This initiative was conceived as a monthly programme, with each session centered on a selected literary work and its cinematic adaptation. For the month of December, the focus was on Rudyard Kipling's classic literary work, The Jungle Book, and its Disney movie adaptation, *The Jungle Book.

In order to ensure meaningful engagement, students were given ample time to read and familiarize themselves with the text prior to the quiz. This preparatory period enabled participants to understand the narrative structure, characters, themes, and moral undertones of the book, as well as to critically compare them with their cinematic representation. The quiz competition was conducted on 22nd December 2025, from 2:15 p.m. to 3:15 p.m., at the MBA Block Seminar Hall, which provided an ideal academic setting for the event.

A total of nine enthusiastic students from various departments participated in the competition, demonstrating a strong interest in literature and an eagerness to test their knowledge. The event was coordinated by Ms. Mary J Rose, who also served as the quiz master. Her effective coordination, confident moderation, and engaging interaction contributed significantly to the success of the programme. The quiz incorporated the use of visual slides, which enhanced clarity, sustained attention, and made the session more interactive and engaging for both participants and the audience.

The competition was structured into multiple rounds, each designed to challenge the participants' literary comprehension and analytical abilities. The questions covered a wide range of aspects, including plot details, character analysis, themes, symbolism, and comparisons between the book and its Disney adaptation. As the rounds progressed, the level of difficulty increased, gradually narrowing down the field and heightening the sense of excitement and healthy competition.

After a stimulating and intellectually engaging session, Albin Joseph Johnson of 2nd year BSc Computer Science emerged as the winner, securing the first prize through his consistent performance and in-depth understanding of the text. The second prize was awarded to Aswin Anoop of 2nd year BSc Computer Science, who also displayed commendable literary knowledge and analytical skills throughout the competition. The winners were felicitated with cash prizes and certificates, recognizing their dedication, preparation, and excellence.

The "Book to Box-Office" Quiz Competition proved to be a meaningful academic initiative that successfully blended literary appreciation with cinematic exploration. Beyond competition, the event fostered camaraderie, critical thinking, and intellectual engagement among students. It reflected the commitment of Naipunnya Institute to promoting holistic education, interdisciplinary learning, and a sustained interest in literature and the arts.
