BAKERY & DINING ETIQUETTE REPORT

Objectives

The learning objectives of the course is to train the students to be confident in the following areas:

- Dining etiquette in formal situations.
- Social and networking skills in business settings.
- An appreciation of cross-cultural differences.

Program Outline

The course was delivered in an experiential way with international standards of star hotels and restaurants. This fun-filled program included a three-course meal, role-play exercises, and activities. The training took students through a step-by-step approach to formal dining and leaves them with adequate experience and training required for their next formal business dinner.

Program Outcomes

The program aims at imparting the following skills:

- Understanding the purpose of luncheons/dinners
- Gaining a perspective of table manners and socially desired behaviors in a professional setting
- Learning the flow of different courses in a meal
- Model the proper use of utensils and glassware
- Knowing the skills involved in making appropriate small-talk
