MULTILINGUAL WEBINAR(HINDI)

REPORT

The Department of Additional Languages organized a Multilingual Webinar in Malayalam, Hindi, and French on 7th March 2026 in Online mode. The Webinar commenced with a common inaugural session attended by students and faculty members.

The program began with a prayer by Ms. Margaret. The Presidential Address was delivered by Mr. Robert Fernandez, who emphasized the importance of multilingual learning and encouraged students to develop language skills for global communication and cultural understanding.

The Welcome Address was delivered by Abhishikth (I Year BBA). Dr. Veena Vijaya offered the felicitation and appreciated the initiative of organizing such an academic program for the students. The Guest Introduction was given by Ms. Mary J. Rose, who introduced the keynote speakers.

Following the inaugural session, separate links were provided for the Hindi and French sessions.

The Hindi session began with a Welcome Address by Dr. Sonia S. The Keynote Address was delivered by Dr. Ajai G. Kamath, Assistant Professor, The Cochin College, Kochi, on the topic "भारतीय त्योहार, संस्कृति: सिनेमा में" (Indian Festivals and Culture in Cinema). The speaker explained that Indian cinema portrays festivals not merely as celebrations but as integral elements of storytelling and emotional expression. He also highlighted how cinema plays a vital role in preserving and promoting Indian culture by showcasing traditions, values, and diverse cultural practices to a wider audience.

The session was informative and engaging, with active participation from students during the interaction segment. The session concluded with a Vote of Thanks by Dr. Sonia S., expressing gratitude to the speaker, organizers, and participants. Around 75 students attended the Hindi webinar.

The webinar concluded successfully with enthusiastic participation from students and faculty members, promoting multilingual learning and cultural exchange.
