REPORT

The Fresher's Day Celebration was organized jointly by the Department of Social Work and the Department of Fashion Designing on 18th July 2025 from 1:30 p.m. to 3:15 p.m. at the MSW and FT Block, NIMIT. The program was conducted to welcome the newly admitted students and provide them with a platform to interact with faculty and seniors in a friendly and inclusive environment.

The event commenced with a Prayer Song by Ms. Anu Biju (MSW Student), followed by the Welcome Address delivered by Ms. Joyshree Mondal, Head of the Department of Social Work, who warmly greeted the gathering.

The Vice Principal, Fr. Dr. Disto Kadalikkatill, addressed the students with an inspiring message, emphasizing discipline, values, and holistic development. This was followed by Felicitation from Ms. Megha A., Head of the Department of Fashion Designing, who motivated the students to pursue creativity and academic excellence.

As part of the celebration, engaging Activities and Games were organized by the 3rd Semester MSW students, which created a lively and interactive atmosphere. The program concluded with a Vote of Thanks by Ms. Anjana P.R (MSW 3rd Semester Student), expressing gratitude to the management, faculty, and students. Finally, refreshments were served to all participants.

The celebration successfully achieved its objective of fostering a sense of belonging and encouraging active participation from freshers. It strengthened the bond between faculty, seniors, and new students, making the event memorable and impactful.
