REPORT

The Women Cell of the college, in association with the Department of Fashion Designing, successfully organized a Crochet Workshop on 18th February, 2026 from 2.15 p.m. to 3.15 p.m. at Room No. 115, First Floor, MSW Block.

The session was led by Ms. Megha A, Assistant Professor, Department of Costume and Fashion Designing, NIMIT. The resource person provided a detailed introduction to the basics of crochet, including the types of crochet threads, needles, and fundamental stitches. She also demonstrated step-by-step techniques, enabling participants to understand the practical aspects of crochet work.

The workshop was attended by Women Cell coordinators and female students from class, who were deputed by their respective class teachers. The students actively participated in the hands-on session by bringing crochet thread, crochet needles, and scissors as instructed. The interactive nature of the session encouraged creativity, skill development, and interest in handicrafts among the participants.

The programme concluded with a note of appreciation to the resource person for conducting an informative and engaging session. The workshop was well-received and proved to be a valuable initiative in promoting creative skills among students.
