REPORT

As part of the cultural visit for the academic year 2025–26, the students of VI Semester BA English Language and Literature were taken to the Kochi-Muziris Biennale on 13 January, 2026. Eight students attended the programme and were accompanied by two faculty members, Dr. Sonia S and Ms. Gigy Johnson. The journey commenced at 8:30 a.m. and the group reached Fort Kochi at 10:30 a.m.

Curated by multidisciplinary artist Nikhil Chopra, the sixth edition of the Kochi-Muziris Biennale, titled 'For the Time Being', offered the students an enriching exposure to contemporary art and culture. The students visited Aspinwall House, Pepper House and the surrounding warehouses of Fort Kochi, where they explored a variety of thought-provoking artistic displays and installations. Some of the major exhibits were Abul Hisham's 'Healing Room', 'From Lived Armouries – Subterranean Formations and Other Fragments' by Panjeri Artists' Union, RB Shajith's 'Portraying Memories of Wiping Out', and Kirtika Kain's 'Chronicles'.

The visit also provided students an opportunity to walk through the historic streets of Fort Kochi and Jew Street, experiencing the cultural diversity, heritage structures, art spaces and scenic beachside views of the region. The students also visited Marine Drive, which added to the overall cultural and recreational experience of the trip. The programme proved to be a memorable and culturally enriching experience for the students, deepening their appreciation for contemporary art and Kerala's multicultural heritage. The visit concluded at 4:30 p.m.
