CIRCULAR

Subject: Visit to DEVA MATHA HOSPITAL

Dear Students,

The P.G. Department of English under its Extension Activity Program will be visiting the DEVA MATHA HOSPITAL on the 26th of November,2024. The aim of the activity is to develop and sustain a love for reading among the general public by providing free periodicals, books related to health, cookery, children's magazines, electronics and Malayalam Manorama magazines. The students of BCom A will be going for the same.

MOVING LIBRARY

REPORT

The Moving Library, managed by NIMIT visited Deva Matha Hospital in Koratty on the 26-11-2024. It was stocked with a fresh collection of books and magazines for children and adults alike; magazines based on current affairs., health, hospitality and on recipes. As part of the English Department's community engagement initiative, students from Bcom (F)A and from the P.G. Department of English, the coordinator Ms. Sabina Leo, visited the hospital. During this outreach activity, student volunteers rearranged the books and magazines collected from the college library and the English Department.

The Hospital Administrator and a sister from the pharmacy were present as the books and magazines were being carefully arranged on the shelf. The visitors witnessed the interest of the students in promoting reading for the people at their leisure. Hospital authorities and student volunteers joined hands in neatly revamping the shelf.
