REPORT

The Department of Hotel Management at Naipunnya Institute of Management and Information Technology (NIMIT), an autonomous institution accredited with NAAC A++, successfully organized a four-day Mixology Workshop from 02 March 2026 to 05 March 2026. The workshop was conducted at the HM-STR training facility from 10:00 a.m. to 03:15 p.m. each day. The event was specifically designed for the Second Year students of HMCS, HMCA, and BHA, aiming to enhance their practical knowledge and skills in beverage preparation and bar operations.

The workshop was led by Mr. Tilvin Sabu, Assistant Professor, Department of Hotel Management, who served as the Resource person. With his expertise and industry-oriented approach, he provided valuable insights into the art and science of mixology. The sessions were carefully structured to balance theoretical understanding with hands-on practical exposure, ensuring a comprehensive learning experience for all participants.

The workshop commenced with an introduction to the fundamentals of mixology, including the history and evolution of cocktails, essential bar tools, and basic techniques such as shaking, stirring, muddling, and layering. Students were also introduced to different types of spirits, mixers, garnishes, and flavor profiles, helping them understand how to create balanced and appealing beverages. In the subsequent sessions, participants actively engaged in practical demonstrations and exercises. They learned to prepare a variety of classic and contemporary mock tails and cocktails, focusing on presentation, taste, and creativity. Special emphasis was given to hygiene, safety standards, and responsible service practices, which are crucial in the hospitality industry. One of the highlights of the workshop was the interactive and experiential learning environment. Students were encouraged to experiment with flavors, develop their own signature drinks, and present them creatively. This not only enhanced their technical skills but also boosted their confidence and innovation. The active participation and enthusiasm of the students contributed significantly to the success of the event. The workshop provided them with an opportunity to bridge the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical application, thereby improving their employability skills. In conclusion, the Mixology Workshop was a highly successful and enriching event that achieved its objectives of skill development and professional training. The Department of Hotel Management continues to organize such practical-oriented programs to equip students with industry-relevant competencies and prepare them for successful careers in the hospitality sector.
