REPORT

Student Guru, the student-led teaching program provides an opportunity for senior scholars to teach their juniors and thus enhance their presentation and tutorial skills. The senior students also take sessions for junior classes in the presence of concerned subject teachers. The scholars from every department were present and took the classes well. The scholars from each department had taken the classes on the prescribed dates except in the Department Of Commerce. The student met an emergency at that time and the session was taken on a later date.
