Report

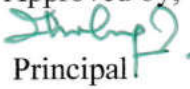

Art of Decoration with fruits & Vegetable -The art of carving fruit or vegetable is within reach of everyone. From mere initiation to advanced improvement, we at the NIMIT, give an added advantage to our students of attending a training session specially designed for them which enables the students to acquire then to master the skills needed to translate your ideas into sophisticated forms through fruits & vegetable. The art of carving fruits and vegetables originated during the period Sukhothai in the 14th century in Thailand. For our students to master this art, we organize Fruit Carving Workshop sessions by International School of Carving, Master Carver Mr.T. P Joy every year at the Department of Hotel Management at NIMIT Pongam Campus. Mr. Joy is a carver who created many designs using fruit and vegetable. Our students are always excited to have a first-hand experience of carving skills and look forward for these sessions of Fruit & Vegetable Carving at our campus.

The objectives of this Fruit & Vegetable Ice Carving workshop was:

- Students learn basic gestures and technique or technique improvement of carving fruits & vegetables.
 - Students improve their artistic expression and develop your creativity by giving free expression to your imagination
 - Students bring elegance to their meals and to your table
 - They combine beauty, finesse and taste
 - Our students learn how to flatter the eye of your guests or customers by combining decoration and gastronomy.
 - Students make the decoration profitable by always considering the costs and time constraints
- Above all fruit carving is an art and today it is one of the most valued professions and is highly paid.
