Report on “Food Festival 2023”

The department of Hotel Management at Naipunnya college conducted food festival titled ‘Khana Khazana 23’. The programme was organized by the second years’ students of Hotel Management Department on 16.02.2023. The food festival was based on the different types of food from all over India that is from Kashmir to Kanyakumari. The whole event was conducted by the students with the help of various heads of the department. The invites of the programs were parents of both first years and second years’ students, other dignitaries and well-wishers of the college. The programme began at 6.30 pm at Navarang auditorium and was inaugurated by Mr. Miju Narayanan (G.M, Casino hotel Kochi) in the presence of Rev. Fr. Dr. Paulachan K J (Executive Director & Principal of NIMIT). There were 550 people for the dinner. The event was great success in terms of wide variety of food, creative decorations, elegant food stalls and live music band also.

It was a fine learning experience for the student organizers to acquire entrepreneurial skills. This helped the students to learn teamwork, collaboration, creativity and marketing skill.
