REPORT

On 18 April 2023, the NSS volunteers of the college donated used and new clothes to the inmates of De Paul SSSmile Village, Vettikkuzhi, Pariyaram. Students collected the clothing items from their classmates, friends, teachers and neighbours. They collected a good number of dresses. They sorted it to different categories. The volunteers visited the institution and spent quality time with the inmates. The noble act made the caretakers of the institution happy. The volunteers were highly appreciated by the SSSmile village management, parents, and the college authority for their selfless social service. The programme was an opportunity for the volunteers to rise up to the needs of the different categories of people in the society.
