REPORT

As part of cultural visit for the academic year 2022-23, the students of IV Semester BA English Language and Literature were taken to Kochi-Muziris Biennale on 22nd March, 2023. 13 students attended the programme and they were accompanied by two teachers. The journey began at 8.45 a.m. and reached Aspinwall House, Fort Kochi-Muziris Biennale venue at 11.45 a.m. Students really enjoyed the grand international art exhibition that reflects a unique multi-cultural past. They witnessed different displays of artworks of both Indian and International artists like Ketaki Sarpotdar's 'When the Rabbit Saw the Falling Sky', Philip Ritz' 'A World Without Maps', Elle Marja Eira's 'Ealat' etc. After lunch students took a stroll through the ancient town of Fort Kochi, a melting pot of different cultures. Scenic views of colourful streets, Dutch, Portugese and British architectural marvels, bamboo fishing nets, churches, heritage buildings and art galleries made students realize Fort Kochi's contribution to Kerala's cultural richness. The students started the journey back to college at 3.30 p.m. and reached by 5.30 p.m.
