Circular

The training department is thrilled to announce the habit of the month of March, "Be a Rainbow in Someone's Cloud," which encourages each and every one of us to embrace empathy, compassion, and positivity as daily habits. Small acts of kindness have the power to brighten someone's day and create a ripple effect of goodwill throughout our community. Join us in making "Be a Rainbow in Someone's Cloud" a cherished tradition on our campus. Together, let's paint our campus with the vibrant colors of empathy, compassion, and acceptance.

REPORT

Be-Hub has been implemented on our campus by the training department to promote positive behavioral changes among students through associative learning. Central to this initiative is the promotion of healthy habits that, when practiced consistently, become a part of students' characters. The habit of the month of March was "Be a rainbow in someone's cloud" and was continued until May. The primary objective of this habit was to encourage each and every one of us to embrace empathy, compassion, and positivity as daily habits. Small acts of kindness have the power to brighten someone's day and create a ripple effect of goodwill throughout the community. By encouraging simple yet meaningful actions on a daily basis, together we painted our campus with the vibrant colors of empathy, compassion, and acceptance.
