REPORT

The class forum held on 18.07.2023 was a resounding success, fostering a vibrant environment of knowledge exchange and meaningful discussions. Organized by the students of Final Year B.Sc. HMCS B from the Department of Hotel Management, the forum aimed to create an interactive platform for students to engage in collaborative learning. The event commenced with an opening address by Mr. Josphe Mathew Philip, Student Organizer, expressing gratitude to the participants and highlighting the significance of the forum in promoting academic excellence. Various sessions like Famous Personality, News Update and Latest Trends, and Restaurant Review were held throughout the session, covering a wide range of topics related to their coursework and beyond. Students showcased their innovative ideas, with each presentation followed by engaging discussions. The forum provided an opportunity for students to receive constructive feedback from their peers and faculty, encouraging them to refine their work further. Faculty members played a pivotal role by actively participating in the discussions, providing valuable insights, and guiding students towards deeper understanding. Their presence greatly enriched the event and inspired students to strive for academic excellence. The forum also encouraged networking and collaboration among the students, fostering a sense of camaraderie and mutual support. Participants appreciated the opportunity to interact with students from different backgrounds and exchange diverse perspectives. In conclusion, the class forum was a remarkable event that showcased the academic prowess and collaborative spirit of the entire class. It not only promoted knowledge-sharing but also bolstered the confidence of the students. The success of this forum has motivated us to organize more such events in the future, contributing to the overall growth and development of our academic community. We extend our heartfelt gratitude to all the participants, faculty, and organizers for making this forum a memorable and rewarding experience
