REPORT

On November 15th, 2023, from 10:15 a.m. to 11:15 a.m., the Meraki "Sashakt" began with a compelling introduction by Lena Maria, the master of Ceremonies (MC). Lena Maria eloquently explained the significance of the name "Sashakt" and provided insights into the overarching theme of empowering women. After the insightful explanation by Lena Maria, the atmosphere was further enriched by a moving prayer song performed by Savio Varghese. Joseph Thomas, in his welcoming speech, set a warm and inclusive tone for the event, expressing gratitude to all participants and emphasizing the collective commitment to women's empowerment. Joseph P Jomon spoke about Malavika Hegde, CEO of Cafe Coffee Day, shedding light on her remarkable journey and achievements.

- The news segment was skillfully presented, with Joseph C.S. covering national and international news, Akash Sasi reporting on sports, and Princy providing updates on campus news. The engaging quiz by Vinay Sabu Elanjikkal entertained the audience from the 1 B. Com A batch. Joseph Jose, Anandha Krishnan and Anjo collectively delved into an insightful presentation about Mama earth. They discussed the company's business cycle, marketing strategies, and target audiences. Nanda Dilip shared insights into the future of financial services, specifically focusing on the role of AI. Ashiq discussed emerging trends in the commerce field, providing valuable perspectives on the evolving landscape. Sinta Benny took the stage to talk about the commemorative day, adding a reflective touch to the event. Albin Shaju expressed gratitude in his vote of thanks acknowledging the collective effort that made Sashakt a success.

The event concluded with feedback provided by the evaluator Ms. Annie Sebastian on the overall performance. Sashakt ended on a patriotic note with a patriotic song, symbolizing unity and celebration.
