REPORT

The PG Department of English and Department of Additional Languages, in collaboration with College Library, hosted a discussion and a few competitions as part of Sameeksha, the celebration of reading week. On June 19, 2023, Sameeksha was officially inaugurated. It was held in the Main Block Seminar Hall from 9:30-11:30 a.m. with a session by Dr. Geetha Nambudiripad, (Assistant Professor, Sree SankaraVidhyapeedam College, Perumbavoor). The programme began with a prayer song by Ms. Amrutha Venugopal (III BA Eng). Dr. Jose Paulose (Chief Librarian) welcomed everyone officially to the programme. Ms. Teresa Parackal (Vice Principal, Academics) addressed the gathering in absence of Rev. Fr. Dr. Paulachan K J (Exe. Director & Principal, NIMIT). Mr. Philip K J, Associate Professor (P.G Department of English) felicitated the gathering.

The P N Panicker Vigyan Vikas Kendra and P N Panicker Foundation have been celebrating the reading day since June 19, 1996. They also observe a digital reading month and reading week nationally. This day is celebrated in order to encourage literacy and the reading culture. Additionally, this day was designated as "National Reading Day" by the Kerala government, Vaayanadinam.

The competitions held were Word Jam, Quizpicable Me, Declaim, Text and the Critic, Band Wagon. We had maximum participation on all days with almost 20 students turning up for each event. The Valedictory function was held on June 23, 2023 where the prizes were given to the students by Fr. Arun Valiyaveetil (Assistant Executive Director) and Ms. Teresa Parackal, (Vice Principal Academics) in the presence of Dr. Jose Paulose (Chief Librarian).
