REPORT

The PG Department of English at Naipunnya College, Pongam, hosted the annual department literature festival, Chutney Soca, on the 19th and 20th of December 2023. The fest included one major event- "Character Couture" - and three minor events - "Spelling Bee", "Molly good", "Picture Poesis" - with more than 40 registrations. Around 6 colleges participated in the fest. The inaugural ceremony of Laqshya was held at Navarang Auditorium on 19th December, 2023. Mr. Jeeva Joseph, actor, VJ, anchor, and model from Mavelikara, was the chief guest of the day. Chutney Soca, the NIMITIAN festival of literature, is a mixture of literary and cultural events conducted annually by the students and faculty members of the English Department. The word Chutney Soca seems familiar but enigmatic.

The English Literature Fest is an immersive and enriching celebration of literary prowess, bringing together avid readers, scholars, authors, and enthusiasts to delve into the diverse and captivating world of English literature. This vibrant event showcases a myriad of literary genres, from classic to contemporary, through engaging panel discussions, insightful lectures, book readings, and interactive workshops. Attendees have the unique opportunity to explore the nuanced dimensions of language, storytelling, and cultural expression, fostering a deeper appreciation for the written word.

The festival served as a platform for intellectual exchange, fostering a sense of community among literature enthusiasts while celebrating the enduring impact of English literature on our collective imagination. The main coordinators of Chutney Soca 2023 were Ms. Vandana Martin and Ms. Jesleen Jose who were assisted by student coordinators – Ms. Amrutha Venugopal and Mr. Anupam Sekhar from III BA English. The event was conducted over a course of two days on the 19th and 20th of December, 2023. The competitions were held offline, from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Participation was open to invited colleges

Spell bee

Individual Event

ID Card is mandatory for participation.

Registration fee- 200/-

Eligibility: The competition is open for degree and PG students.

3 Rounds

- Round 1: Preliminary – Each participant will be given one word to spell. The participants who spell correctly will move on to the next round.
- Round 2: Semi- final- Each participant will be asked to select the correct spelling from the given options. Four participants will be chosen for the final round. In case of participants with the same score, tiebreakers will decide the finalists.
- Round 3: Final- It will have two parts. In part one, the participants will have to choose the correct meaning of the word given. In the second, a single word will be given to each participant to spell. First and second place will be determined at the end of the round. Tiebreakers will be used if needed.

General instructions-

- Participants will not be allowed to change the spelling once they have spelled the word completely.
- If every participant in a round misspells, all the students in the round will be invited back to the competition. Participants can ask for the meaning of the word (except for part one of round 3) and its alternate pronunciation. (applicable to all rounds)
- 90 seconds will be given to each participant to spell one word.
- A pen and paper will be provided to the participants if needed.
- Judges' decisions will be final and binding.
