Report

Peer learning is an education method that helps students solidify their knowledge by teaching each other. One student tutoring another in a supervised environment can result in better learning and retention. Peer learning fosters teamwork, cooperation, patience, and better social skills. In a cooperative peer learning environment, each student's strengths can serve to complement the group and enhance learning. When they learn with their peers, they can see new processes for answering questions and come up with creative, collaborative solutions. Importantly, they may take these new perspectives and a willingness to seek and accept feedbacks with them as they progress in their education.

Peer learning fosters diversity and depth in a student's knowledge and opinions. Learning from peers of different backgrounds, views, and ethnicities fosters an environment of mutual respect, gratitude, and development. This adds a richness to the learning environment. Additionally, supporting diversity through peer learning is a part of culturally responsive teaching.

Department of English has a practice of organizing Peer teaching sessions for the students of M.A English Language and Literature. Peer teaching was arranged for the V Semester B.A English Literature students as a part of their curriculum. The session was conducted on 22nd August in V Semester B.A English Classroom. This was organized to enhance the ability of teaching among the students.

Mr. Joyal Shaji, a student of I M.A English Language and Literature, was allotted with the topic "Branches of Linguistics". He was given a training session prior to the class. Then he was allotted an hour to take class. His class session was monitored by Dr. Purnima S Kumar, the Head of the Department English. He was given corrective suggestions at the end of the session. One could see that the students took class with confidence and good preparation. A feedback was collected from the students after the session.
