REPORT

On February 28, 2024, students of fourth semester B. Com Finance B engaged in a meaningful outreach project at the Koratty police station. The event began with a brief, yet impactful awareness training session conducted by a police official. During this session, the officer emphasized the importance of involving youth in activities that benefit society, highlighting the value and impact of community service.

Following the awareness training, the students eagerly participated in a comprehensive cleanup of the police station grounds. Their efforts were driven by the campaign's overarching goal of serving and improving the community. Throughout the day, the students demonstrated dedication and teamwork as they worked together to enhance the cleanliness and environment of the Koratty police station. This outreach activity not only fostered a sense of social responsibility among the students but also strengthened their connection to the community.
