REPORT

The Students of IIIRD Year of Naipunnya Institute of Management and Information Technology conducted a freshers day on August 22, 2024 in Navarang. The event, organized, saw participation from a diverse group of students, each eager to showcase their unique talents from all students of our department. The show featured a variety of performances, including singing, dancing, and instrumental music. The event was about building confidence and encouraging spirit among the students. The event aimed to provide a platform for students to express themselves and break the ice with their peers. It was a perfect start to the college life of these first-year students, setting a positive tone for the rest of their academic journey.
