The Music Club aims to provide students with a platform to explore and nurture their musical talents. It offers opportunities for students to participate in both individual and group competitions, fostering creativity and skill development. With this vision in mind, the NIMIT Music Club is hosting the "Carol Song – Cake Mixing Ceremony". The event will be held at the Navarang Auditorium on 19th November 2024, from 10.30 am to 12.00 pm. It promises to be a lively and exciting event, showcasing the musical talents of our students.

REPORT

Carol Song marking the beginning of the Christmas season. The event was held on 19th November, 2024 at Navarang auditorium. This brought together students, faculty, and staff in a spirit of unity and joy. The celebration was followed by the inauguration of 'Melange-24' the Cake Mixing Ceremony, where the Music Club students beautifully performed carols. Six students participated in the event, all dressed in matching red and white uniforms. They delivered an impressive performance.

The Cake Mixing Ceremony kicked off the celebrations, with participants mixing flour, dry fruits, spices, and nuts, symbolizing unity and good fortune. The lively activity encouraged interaction among everyone, creating a fun and festive atmosphere.
