Circular

The P.G. Department of English, under its Extension Activity Program, will be visiting the DEVA MATHA HOSPITAL on 10th February 2025. The main objective of this activity is to develop the love for reading among the common masses who visit the hospital. Free periodicals, magazines, books on reflective topics, cookery and fiction to suit the needs of the elderly and youth alike are provided in English and Malayalam. Sports magazines and children's magazines to suit the young minds are also given. Overall, it is a treat for book-lovers. The students from 1BBA and a nun student from 1st M.Com. will be going for the same.

REPORT

Moving Library

On 10/02/2025, the Moving Library, managed by NIMIT, visited Deva Matha Hospital in Koratty. The Library Stand at the hospital was revamped with a fresh collection of books, periodicals, magazine, sports magazines, children's magazines along with a few reflective books on great writers.

As part of the English Department's community engagement initiative, the Coordinator Ms Sabina Leo along with students from 1BBA and I M. Com visited the hospital. It was an enriching experience for the first year students to rearrange and stack fresh stock of books collected from the Library and neighbors of their locality.

The Hospital Administrator, a sister from the pharmacy as well as visitors at the hospital witnessed the students arranging the fresh stock of books and appreciated their efforts. It was an initiative to encourage reading and refrain from using their mobiles for some time.
