REPORT

The training department introduced Connecting the Dots – Extension & Consultancy Services, with an objective of spreading knowledge and facilitating meaningful connections among individuals. This program was designed to build bridges across various communities, enriching participants' perspectives and equipping them with skills to serve effectively within their roles. Niveditha Center for Religious Formation and Fellowship in association with the Syro Malabar Youth Movement (SMYM) of Europe, the official youth organization for the Syro Malabar Diaspora in Europe conducted a youth mentorship training session on 30th October 2024. Based on the feedback received, they were invited to take a session for another batch. The event was conducted in online mode. Rev. Fr. Dr. Paulachan K J, Exe. Director & Principal NIMIT was the resource person for one of the sessions, focusing on leadership skills. Through this endeavor, the training department continues to emphasize the importance of collaboration and knowledge-sharing for a more interconnected and dynamic community.
