REPORT

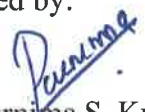

The PG Department of English organized an intra-departmental quiz competition aimed at inculcating and encouraging the literary interests of both UG and PG students of the department on 19/11/2024. This event primarily focused on 'Indian Writers in English', providing a platform for students to delve into the celebrated works of legendary writers such as R K Narayan, Rabindranath Tagore, Ruskin Bond and Kamala Das. The key objective of the competition was to ignite a passion for literature among students and to familiarize them with the key figures and prominent works of the Indian writers in English literature. By nudging students to participate in such events, the department envisages to create a learning environment that promotes academic curiosity and a deeper appreciation for the rich literary heritage of Indian writing in English. The response from both UG and PG students was overwhelming and their enthusiastic participation truly exceeded expectations. The quiz competition served as a vibrant learning opportunity for both the participants and the audience, that deepens their understanding of outstanding works of Indian writers in both fiction and non-fiction categories, while honing their critical thinking in real-time, which is necessary to properly understand and answer questions within the stipulated time. The event was truly thought-provoking, highly informative, and intensely competitive, offering students a chance to explore the captivating, enchanting, and vibrant world of English literature.
