REPORT

The Screen Printing Workshop was organized by the Department of Fashion Designing on 12th March 2025 from 1:30 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. in the Navarang Auditorium, NIMIT and had a total of 27 participants, including students, teachers, and non-teaching staff, to provide participants with practical exposure to screen printing techniques. This workshop aimed to enhance their skills, provide an understanding of the making of printing paste, and deepen their knowledge of the craft while highlighting the advantages of screen printing, such as its cost-effectiveness, versatility, and ability to produce high-quality prints.

The event commenced with an inaugural address by Principal Rev. Fr. Dr. Paulachan KJ, who emphasized the significance of hands-on learning and skill development in fashion designing.

The workshop was led by Megha A, Assistant Professor, NIMIT, Department of Fashion Designing, who shared her expertise and provided valuable insights into screen printing.

The session was divided into two key phases:

1. Introduction & Demonstration – the Resource person elaborated on the fundamentals of screen printing, discussing materials, tools, and techniques. A live demonstration was conducted to give participants a comprehensive understanding of the process.
2. Practical Session – Attendees had the opportunity to apply their knowledge through hands-on activities, experimenting with designs and printing under expert supervision. Participants were provided with printing paste, screen frames, and cloth for their practical work.

The workshop successfully fulfilled its goal of promoting creativity and technical expertise in screen printing, equipping participants with valuable skills for future applications.
