REPORT

The students of I Year B. Com A (2023 Admission) at Naipunnya Institute of Management and Information Technology (NIMIT) successfully conducted a cleaning campaign at Koratty Police Station on November 8, 2024, as part of their outreach activity. The initiative aimed to promote cleanliness, civic responsibility, and community engagement. During the campaign, the students actively participated in cleaning various sections of the station, including sweeping, mopping, dusting furniture, and clearing outdoor spaces. Their efforts not only enhanced the cleanliness of the police station but also strengthened their sense of social responsibility. The police staff appreciated the students' dedication and expressed gratitude for the improved working environment. The event served as a valuable learning experience, fostering teamwork, collaboration, and a commitment to community service. This initiative effectively demonstrated the students' ability to work together while addressing local environmental concerns.
