REPORT

The Students of I Year B. Com A (2023 Admission) of Naipunnya Institute of Management and Information Technology (NIMIT) conducted an outreach activity on 25th October 2024. As part of this the students visited Emmanuel Kripa Trust, and they distributed food packets for lunch. Students spent a full day with the residents wholeheartedly. They spent a full day with the residents wholeheartedly. Good communication between the students and the residents allowed them to instil in them the virtues of compassion and empathy. The residents were really pleased with the entertainment presentations conducted by the students. For every student, the experience was truly unique.
