Report

Assembly was conducted for the whole college as it was a special Assembly. The Oath taking ceremony was conducted in the assembly. Principal, Rev. Fr. Dr. Paulachan K. J., addressed the students' community in connection with the common assembly for all the students held on October 15th, 2024. Father gave clear instructions regarding the university exam dates and asked students to take academics seriously. Final year tour instructions were also announced. Father clearly instructed that when a programme happens in the college students should remain till the programme gets over. When face to face Programme was conducted in connection with Union election students left the auditorium before the programme got completed. Father also asked students to involve in election process as this year there was contestants only for two posts. If this is the situation, will have to think of Presidential mode of election. Father requested students to participate in various programmes of the college. Father welcomed the new union members to the stage. Dr Antony also addressed the gathering and thanked everyone for the smooth conduct of the election process. The Oath was announced by Dr Joy and students took the oath.
