Report

Flower Arrangement is an integral part of hotel housekeeping. To provide a practical orientation of flower arrangement to the III semester students of B. Sc. HMCS A&B, B.Sc. HMCA and BHA, a two-day workshop was organized by the department of Hotel Management, NIMIT. 150 students of the second year participated in the event. The resource person was Ms. Jeena Joy, Arts & Craft Faculty, Al-Hind Public School, Aluva. The sessions included demonstration and use of equipment and tools used in flower arrangement. The participants were introduced to popular flowers, fillers and foliage used in flower arrangement. The correct way conditioning flowers to make them last longer in an arrangement was also taught.

The sessions began with a theoretical class followed with hands-on training in the art of flower arrangement. The sessions were very fruitful as it not only enhanced the participant's knowledge about flower arrangement but it also created an interest in the students to try making the arrangements. The level of confidence and enthusiasm with which the students prepared their arrangements was also noticed. The total cost of the workshop was ₹16,000/-. The materials required for the workshop was brought by the resource person. The venue for the workshop was setup by the student coordinators. Sessions like these are much appreciated by the student and teaching fraternity.
