REPORT

The students of IV semester B.A. English (2023 Admission) of Naipunnya Institute of Management and Information Technology (NIMIT) visited St. Mary's L.P. School, Mudapuzha on 11 April 2025, to distribute basic learning materials. The objective was to encourage education by providing useful stationery items like pencils and notebooks. The collected materials were handed over to the school staff for the benefit of the students. The staff expressed heartfelt thanks for this thoughtful gesture. This experience helped students understand the value of giving and the joy it brings. They displayed teamwork, responsibility and social awareness throughout the activity. It was a meaningful initiative that highlighted the importance of supporting education. The outreach left a positive impression on the school staff and motivated students to keep contributing to meaningful causes.
