REPORT

The French Workshop, centered on the theme “Communiquez en français à travers les fables” (Communicating in French through Fables), was successfully conducted on the 14th of January from 11:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. The workshop aimed to enhance students' French vocabulary and narrative skills by exploring the art of storytelling through fables. The session commenced with a warm welcome address by Ms. Angel Mariam Jose, Assistant Professor, Department of Additional Languages, NIMIT. She extended her greetings to the dignitaries, faculty members, and students, highlighting the importance of learning languages through creative methods like storytelling. The program was officially inaugurated by Rev. Fr. Dr. Paulachan K.J., Executive Director and Principal of NIMIT. During his Presidential Address, Fr. Paulachan emphasized the role of innovative methods in language acquisition and encouraged students to immerse themselves in French culture and language. Dr. Joy Joseph Puthussery, Dean of Studies at NIMIT, felicitated the gathering. He praised the Department of Additional Languages for organizing the workshop and motivated students to actively participate in such enriching experiences. The formal proceedings concluded with a heartfelt Vote of Thanks delivered by Joel Joseph, a student from I BCA B. He expressed gratitude to the dignitaries, organizers and participants for making the event a grand success. Following the inaugural ceremony, the workshop focused on interactive learning through fables. Students explored:

- New French Vocabulary: Enhancing their linguistic repertoire.
- Creative Storytelling: Developing and sharing their unique fables in French.

The session encouraged active participation, fostering confidence and communication skills among the attendees. By the end of the workshop, students not only learned new words but also demonstrated their understanding by sharing self-composed stories inspired by the fables discussed.

The workshop was an enriching experience for all participants, reflecting the college's commitment to holistic and innovative education.
