REPORT ON CLASS FEST CONDUCTED BY 4TH SEMESTER B.SC. HMCA

The Department of Hotel Management proudly organized a vibrant Class Fest, conducted by the 4th Semester B.Sc. HMCA students. The event aimed to enhance students' culinary expertise, sales proficiency, and service skills through practical engagement and teamwork.

As part of the Class Fest, students successfully prepared and sold burgers accompanied by French fries with Coca Cola, showcasing their culinary creativity and sales strategies. In addition to the food sale, the students effectively coordinated a film screening of the newly released movie Marco, further enriching the event experience.

Through their combined efforts, the students achieved a commendable profit of ₹7,700, which they generously contributed as sponsorship support for the Management Fest, Phoenix 2025.

The Class Fest not only provided students with valuable hands-on experience in hospitality operations but also fostered teamwork, leadership, and entrepreneurial skills. The initiative was a remarkable success, reflecting the dedication and commitment of the students involved.
