REPORT

The students of I B. Com A (2024 Admission) of Naipunnya Institute of Management and Information Technology (NIMIT) conducted an outreach activity on 28th May 2025 by visiting St. Alphonsa Sadan. The students spent the entire day with the residents, engaging in heartfelt conversations and meaningful interactions. This experience helped nurture values of empathy, compassion, and social awareness among the students. As part of the initiative, they also contributed Rs. 1000 towards providing stationery and other essential items for the residents. The visit was a profoundly moving and enriching experience, offering the students a valuable perspective on the importance of community service and human connection.
