REPORT

As part of the institution's commitment to social responsibility and community engagement, the students of II year B.Sc. IT program at Naipunnya Institute of Management and Information Technology organized an outreach activity at the Nedumbassery Grama Panchayat Buds School on April 11, 2025. This initiative aimed to spread joy, learning, and support among children with special needs, while fostering empathy and awareness among the students.

The students distributed essential study materials and sweets to the inmates. The outreach program was a meaningful and impactful experience to cultivate a sense of social responsibility and compassion among students. During the visit, students conducted various interactive and engaging sessions including games and recreational activities, storytelling and music sessions etc. It was a memorable day for the inmates as well as the students.
