REPORT

The PG Department of English strives to mould individuals into successful and vibrant professionals to function as effective and empathetic human beings, grounded with confidence and conviction to face the challenges of the world. Advanced Learners are identified at the beginning of the session and are groomed to scale new heights through its Walk with Scholar (WWS) programme.

On the 1st of October 2024, Ms. Akhila Hari K.V. conducted a peer teaching session for the students of 2nd B A- English students at Naipunnya Institute of Management and Information Technology (NIMIT), Pongam, Koratty, organised by the PG Department of English on the topic – “Essays of Francis Bacon”. She engaged the students brilliantly by highlighting the works of Francis Bacon with a plethora of examples from his famous works.

With clear explanations and sharp comic timing, Ms. Akhila unpacked the text’s use of irony, exaggeration, and absurdity. She effectively engaged the class in analysing the works of Bacon. The session not only deepened students’ appreciation for humorous literature but also demonstrated how presentation style can elevate classroom engagement. Ms. Akhila’s confident delivery and passion for literature was evident throughout, making the event both educational and enjoyable.
