REPORT

On December 21, 2024, at 10:30 a.m., the III Semester B.Com B students of Naipunnya Institute of Management and Information Technology, Koratty, brought the festive spirit of Christmas to Vazhical, Pakal Veedu (Elder's Haven) as part of the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit No. 278. The celebration aimed to spread love, joy, and togetherness among the elderly residents, creating a memorable experience for everyone involved. The event featured a variety of activities, including singing carols, decorating the premises with vibrant ornaments, and engaging with the residents through heartfelt conversations. The students also prepared small gifts for the elders, symbolizing the joy of giving during the festive season. The highlight of the celebration was the cutting of a Christmas cake worth Rs. 500, which brought smiles to everyone's faces and fostered a sense of community and belonging. The students and residents shared warm moments, enjoying the festive treats and reminiscing about cherished memories.
