REPORT ON ANTI-RAGGING AWARENESS WEEK

Objective: Create awareness about the ill effects of ragging and promote a ragging-free environment in the college.

Duration: 12th August 2024 to 18th August 2024

Activities:

- Digital Poster making Competition: On 14th August, 2024 Students participated in creating posters and slogans conveying anti-ragging messages.

Digital collage making competition: on 15th August, 2024, The collages were designed to convey powerful messages against ragging and promote unity among students.

- Digital logo design competition: On 17th August 2024, logo design competition was a huge success, with many talented designers submitting their work. The winning logo effectively represents the movement against ragging and promotes a culture of respect, empathy, and inclusivity.

- Campaign: On 13th August, 2024, Students organized awareness campaigns to spread awareness about the consequences of ragging.

- Seminar: On 16th August, 2024, Advocate Reena John N, ICC member, rural special officer, customs office, university of health and science, Trissur delivered talks on the Ragging and consequences and ways to prevent it for the second year students around 300 students participated

- Pledge Ceremony: On 13th August, 2024, Anti Ragging Students wing consisting of 12 students headed by Sanju, Third year B.com computer Application took an anti-ragging pledge in all the classes

- Assembly Address: On 12TH August 2024 Mathew John, a student from the third semester of Finance B, delivered a brief yet impactful talk on the critical issue of ragging. He highlighted the importance of addressing this problem and informed the students about the faculty members responsible for handling ragging cases, providing their mobile numbers for easy access and support

Outcome:

- Increased awareness about the consequences of ragging
- Fostered a sense of responsibility among seniors to protect juniors
- Strengthened anti-ragging policies and procedure

Conclusion:

Anti-Ragging Awareness Week was a success in promoting a ragging-free environment in our institution. We will continue to organize such events to ensure a safe and supportive learning environment for all students.
