REPORT

Faculty rejuvenation programmes are essential for ensuring that educators remain current with the latest advancements in their fields and innovative teaching practices. By encouraging the adoption of new technologies and student-centered approaches, such programmes promote creativity and effectiveness in the classroom. They also cultivate a culture of continuous learning and self-improvement among faculty members. Ultimately, faculty rejuvenation not only enhances the professional competence of educators but also enriches the learning experience for students.

A two days FRP was organized by the PG Department of English on the 27th and 28th May 2025 from 9.00 a.m. -4.00 p.m. in the MBA seminar hall of the college. Ms. Shyama Sasidharan, Research Scholar (SRF), St. Thomas College (Autonomous), Thrissur and columnist was the resource person for the session titled, 'Behind the Research Curtain: Concepts, Craft, and Controlled Chaos' and Dr. Viju M.J, Associate professor and research supervisor, Department of English, St. Thomas College, Thrissur for 'Reimagining Language Education: Innovative Teaching methods under the FYUGP paradigm'. The sessions were useful in providing practical insights and strategies that can be directly applied to enhance teaching effectiveness. Its interactive nature encouraged active participation, fostering meaningful discussions and collaborative learning among faculty members.
