REPORT

The students of Social Work organized a community awareness program at St. Joseph High School, Kidangoor, on Friday, November 29th. The focus of the program was on HIV/AIDS awareness and education. The initiative, titled "Chaithanya", was a successful effort aimed at raising awareness about AIDS among the school community.

The program specifically targeted students who were part of the scouts and guides, and Red Cross teams. In total, around 150 students participated in the awareness session. The theme of the program was "Breaking Barriers of HIV/AIDS Awareness and Education."

The program began at 1:30 p.m. with a prayer, followed by the presidential address. An ice-breaking session was conducted to engage the participants, and a speech was delivered by the resource person Ms. Suvarna, a social worker. The session was highly informative and interactive. Students actively participated by asking questions and clarifying their doubts. Ms. Suvarna handled the session effectively and provided valuable insights, which contributed to the learning experience of the participants. The community program concluded with a vote of thanks, marking the end of a meaningful and impactful event.

FEEDBACK

The feedback from both students and faculty at St. Joseph High School, Kidagoor, regarding the "Chaithanya" community awareness program was overwhelmingly positive. Students appreciated the engaging and informative nature of the session, especially the clarity with which Ms. Suvarna addressed sensitive topics related to HIV/AIDS. Many participants noted that the ice-breaking session helped them feel more comfortable and open to discussing the subject. They found the talk enlightening and praised the opportunity to ask questions in a respectful and supportive environment. Faculty members commended the student social workers for organizing a well-structured and impactful program. They highlighted the importance of such initiatives in promoting awareness, reducing stigma, and empowering young minds with accurate knowledge. Overall, the program was described as a commendable effort in fostering health education and social responsibility among students.
