REPORT

A community programme was organized by the Department of Social Work. The programme took place at Kripasadan Old Age Home on 22nd November 2024 at 11:00 a.m. Kripasadan houses 15 elderly women who have been abandoned by their families and have no one to care for them. The programme began with a prayer song, welcome speech, presidential address, felicitation speech, fun games, and a vote of thanks. The resource person for the session was Thresiamma, an elderly woman and the grandmother of a student, who shared her valuable life experiences. Another guest who drew attention was Mr. Albin, the ward member of Ward 15 in Karukutty Panchayat. Fr. Siju Varghese, the fieldwork supervisor, and Sr. Annu, the organization head, also graced the occasion as guests of honour.

The three trainees led engaging activities such as action songs and "Nadan Paattu." Thresiamma Chechi's sharing about her life of isolation prompted a meaningful discussion that enlightened both the inmates and trainees. Fr. Siju Varghese also shared valuable insights, adding depth to the experience. The entire event fostered a joyful and graceful atmosphere. Both the residents and the trainees enjoyed the day thoroughly, and the trainees reflected on and embraced their roles as social workers.

FEEDBACK

The “NEERAV” community programme at Kripasadan Old Age Home was a well-organized and heartfelt event. The trainees demonstrated commendable coordination, creativity, and empathy throughout. The interactive session with Thresiamma Chechi was especially touching and sparked deep reflection. Fun activities like action songs and folk music created a joyful atmosphere. The involvement of guests such as Fr. Siju Varghese and Albin Sir added depth and encouragement. Overall, the programme was impactful, emotionally enriching, and successfully promoted community bonding and social awareness.
