REPORT

Community programme titled as “NIDHI”. was organized by Department of Social Work

The programme was conducted on 29th November 2024 at Pallissery. It took place at SNDP Library, Pallissery. The programme was dealt mainly for Kudumbashree women. The programme began at 4:00 p.m. The topic of the community programme was “Women Empowerment - Awareness Programme”. The resource person of this programme was Ms. Ramini (who was the former head of Kudumbashree). She was working as a staff in Veterinary Dispensary at Karukutty Panchayat.

The main guest of honour was Ms. Ramini. There was also Ward Member Ms. Mary who belong to Ward 4 of Pallissery. There was a Secretary of Kudumbashree who was also a part of this programme. There were also other members of Kudumbashree in this programme.

The programme starts with a prayer. There was a welcome speech which was given by Ms. Ancy Joy. Then there was a felicitation speech by Ramani chechi.

The class was very effective where they realized the activities played by Kudumbashree, the initiatives taken by Karukutty Panchayat, the various schemes of Kudumbashree. They were given different saplings which was given free to the class. The class ends with a vote of thanks at 5:00 p.m. The trainees gave refreshment to these members. The programme was well coordinated. They were very cooperative, and the community programme was really a successful one.

FEEDBACK

The “NIDHI” community programme held at SNDP Library, Pallissery, was a highly impactful and well-coordinated event. Focused on “Women Empowerment – Awareness Programme,” it successfully engaged Kudumbashree members through informative sessions and interactive discussions. The session led by Ramini Chechi was inspiring and shed light on various Kudumbashree schemes and panchayat initiatives. The active support of Ward Member Mrs. Mary and the Kudumbashree Secretary contributed to the smooth conduct of the programme. The trainees showed excellent planning and teamwork. The distribution of saplings and refreshments added a thoughtful touch. Overall, the programme was meaningful, engaging, and well-received by all participants.
