REPORT

36th Senior National Korfball Championship

Two students from our institution participated in the 36th Senior National Korfball Championship, a national-level competition held at Lovely Professional University, Punjab, from 30 January 2025 to 02 February 2025.

The championship brought together top korfball players from different states across India. Our college was proudly represented by two talented students who showcased excellent teamwork, skill, and sportsmanship during the tournament.

We are proud to announce that TWO student won a GOLD medal in the championship. This remarkable achievement at the national level has brought great honor and recognition to the institution.

The management, principal, and the Department of Physical Education congratulated the students for their outstanding performance and appreciated their dedication and hard work. Their success serves as an inspiration for other students to actively participate in sports and strive for excellence at national-level competitions.
