REPORT

Four students from our institution participated in the 38th National Games, a prestigious national-level sporting event held in Uttarakhand from 28 January 2025 to 14 February 2025.

The event witnessed participation from athletes representing various states and institutions across the country, competing in different sports disciplines. Our students represented the institution with great dedication and sportsmanship throughout the competition.

We are proud to announce that one student secured a SILVER medal in the National Games. This achievement at the national level is a matter of great pride for the college and highlights the hard work and commitment of the athlete.

The management, Principal, and the Department of Physical Education congratulated the participants for their commendable performance and encouraged them to continue striving for excellence in future competitions.
