REPORT

ASIAN YOUTH NETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

One student from our institution, Ashna Maria Jose, participated in the Asian Youth Netball Championship, an international-level competition held in South Korea from 27 June 2025 to 04 July 2025.

The championship brought together talented young netball players from various Asian countries, providing a valuable platform for international competition and experience. Representing the team with dedication and skill, Ashna Maria Jose performed commendably throughout the tournament.

She secured the Fifth Position in the championship, which is a notable achievement at the international level. Her participation and performance have brought pride and recognition to the institution.

The Management, Principal, and the Department of Physical Education congratulated Ashna Maria Jose for her excellent performance and encouraged her to continue striving for greater achievements in future international competitions.
