REPORT

On 3rd September 2024, an orientation session for first-year NSS (National Service Scheme) volunteers was successfully conducted by Ms. Emil George, the NSS Programme Officer. The session aimed to welcome and introduce new volunteers to the core values, objectives, and functioning of the NSS. Ms. George provided an insightful overview of the organization's mission to instill a spirit of selfless service, social responsibility, and active citizenship among youth.

During the session, Ms. George elaborated on the various responsibilities of an NSS volunteer, including participation in community development projects, environmental campaigns, health awareness drives, and disaster relief activities. She emphasized the importance of leadership, teamwork, discipline, and empathy in executing these initiatives effectively. Real-life examples of successful NSS projects were shared to inspire and motivate the newcomers.

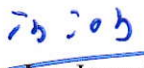

The orientation also served as a platform for volunteers to interact, share their expectations, and clarify their doubts. Students expressed keen interest and enthusiasm in becoming part of meaningful community service. They were encouraged to actively engage in all future NSS programmes and to uphold the values of unity and service in every endeavor.

The session concluded on a positive and motivating note, laying a strong foundation for a fruitful and socially impactful NSS journey ahead.
